

ROSEBUD THEATRE

Programs for 2010 – ALL MATINEES

Rosebud Theatre is about stories that deliver something bigger than the sum of their parts, an adventure in sight and sound, image and work and song that promises to leave an indelible impression on hearts. Join Lifetime Highs for a great lunch and theatre! People love the old-fashioned service, home-style food and quality live entertainment. Bring your family, friends or groups!!

AUGUST 26 - OLIVER

Enter Victorian London's underworld in the Charles Dickens classic about a young orphan forced from workhouse to street pickpocket to home – all of it filled with music that delights and inspires. Bring the whole family and “consider yourself at home!”

DECEMBER 18 - THE SECRET GARDEN

The traditional Secret Garden with a Rosebud spin - Breaking through the frost. The beloved story of three children transformed by the miracle of emerging buds and flowers brings a Christmas garden to Rosebud.
